

JOIN Amador Children in Nature!

Amador Children in Nature is a new group for members of our local community that advocates the importance of unstructured, outdoor play for children's health and well-being.

If connecting our community's youth to the outdoors is a topic that interests you, please join us for the next get-together of the Amador Children in Nature group.

Thursday, August 12th
11:00 a.m.

Amador County Health & Human Services Building
10877 Conductor Blvd., Sutter Creek (off of Ridge Road)
