CALENDAR OF EVENTS

June 6 – 9:00-11:00 A.M. - Summer Theater with Giles Turner. Join in the fun of playwriting and acting in your own play. Please come to the first session to sign-up. Sessions are once a week through July from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

June 22 – Summer Reading Program begins. Come in and get your reading log and be ready to read! Lots of great books and prizes!

June 23 – 10:30 a.m. to Noon - Ride, Rumble and Read. Meet local Mother Lode Hog Chapter members. See different motorcycles, listen to the rumble of their engines and enjoy stories read by chapter participants.

June 24, July 1, July 8 and July 15 – 1:00 – 2:00 p.m. - Craft Classes

June 24 – 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. – Todd Borg, author of the award-winning Owen McKenna mystery thrillers, will be here to share his writing experiences. For adults who love a great mystery.

June 26 – 10:30 a.m. – Story time.

June 26, July 10, July 17, July 24 – 10:30 – Noon Stories with Charlie. Come in and sign up for your special time reading to Charlie Brown. Charlie is a Reading Education Assistance Dog (R.E.A.D). R.E.A.D dogs are registered therapy animals who have been trained and tested for health, safety and temperament and volunteer with their owner/handlers as reading companions for children. The readers will read appropriate age and reading level literature to Charlie and Charlie will listen attentively, not judge, or criticize the readers. This is a one-on-one reading experience so signing up for your special time is required.

July 2 – 2:00 p.m. at Detert Park. Come join the Fratello Marionettes as they present Vaudeville Follies. We had a wonderful time with them last year and look forward to another terrific performance this year.

July 7 & July 14 – 10:00-11:00 a.m. - Create a Cyanotype with award winning photographer Laura Mah. With its invention in 1842 Cyanotypes are one of the oldest printing methods in photography. Signature Prussian Blue images are the hallmark of the Cyanotype printing process. With just the help of sun and water, participants in this workshop create their very own cyanotype images. Have fun exploring this historic process and create art! Ages 7 & up. Please sign up for this great class as space is limited.

July 9 – 1:00-2:00 p.m. – Underwater Asian Art Treasures. Explore ancient cultures through submerged art treasures with an expert collector. Join local expert Bernie O’Reilly for a fascinating journey through time. All ages.

July 18 – 2:00 p.m. - Rock Steady Juggling will perform at Detert park. This is an extraordinary juggling act for everyone. Come spend an afternoon in the park with a great entertainer. All ages.

July 21 – 11:00 – Noon - Join talented artist and published book illustrator, Val Laolagi on a “Walk in the life of a Modern Day Artist” Explore how to apply art to business, web development, marketing and computer graphics and careers in art. Includes art demonstration All ages.
