

Readers catch the bug

Monday, August 04, 2008

The Amador County Library Summer Reading Program graduates were awarded during a ceremony on July 30 for their work and dedication over the break by program coordinator Susan Bickford and county librarian Laura Einstadter. From left, Makenna, 9; Matthew, 11; Emily, 7; and Jason, 8. All of the readers received a certificate and a gift bag during the ceremony.
